ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The editors of the volume express their gratitude to William Radice for providing the permission to use the poem and to Kathy O'Connell, wife of Joe, for all her support for this project and providing the wonderful photo of Joe.

Joseph T. O'Connell (1940–2012)

IN MEMORIAM

*rather than a stone, a tree — rather than the rain's tears engraving slowly runnels in the stone,
let there be life-giving waters, so that trees, rooted in a life nobly completed, can grow and burgeon — titling, soaring, branching free*

William Radice
